

JOJO

Jo, JoJo, Jo-Unit, Joanna Panda, you've made our lives richer —
a daughter who excels
as student, friend, and pitcher.

Always on the Honor (Egg!) Roll earning those straight A's,
nothing you've accomplished
has ever been halfway.

With Megan, Erin and Sarah,
you make up the FAB 4, celebrating Spirit colors and
great memories forevermore.

Your Korean background created stories we tell now and then — when dad says you look alike, he expects:
"Don't ever say that again!"

Gracie and Jenny add sparkle
to a life that shines full blast,
and thoughts of "big sister" Maddie
bring comfort from the past.

Your rituals with Gracie
are a source of daily joy.
We all know that Henry
is more than a stuffed Beagle toy.

That blanket with the elephant, and
the pillow your grandmother made—
those cherished items
soothe like a soft serenade.

Party! Party! Party!
You've had all the best,
From Fuddrucker's to Phillips,
your trail is marked "Fun Fest."

You won't forget the scavenger hunt
at 17 — what a thrill-o,
or the animal theme when you were 6,
and that man brought an armadillo!

Your knowledge of sports is huge,
and wins you lots of raves. Your accomplishments may rally lost souls,
even the Atlanta Braves!

Most Valuable Player, Most Improved, Sportsmanship Award —
playing the game with passion is often the best reward.

April 13, 2005, you pitched that game against North County High.
Not only did you make the headlines,
you made Beth Mullins cry.

Quebec, Paris, the Outer Banks,
in Hawaii for a luau,
Your travels so far add up
to an itinerary of WOW!!

Special people light your path in the present and the past: your grandparents, Ms. Sandy, Mr. Bruce, Dave Dulin—part of the all-star cast.

Let's include Aunt Karen,
and the remarkable Eeyore.
Wherever you sleep, in your dreams
value your family and friends galore.

Carolyn Jones has styled your hair for Homecoming & the Senior Prom—
She's a gem in your life, & knows you almost as well as your mom!

Loyal to the core,
dedicated and smart.
You're the "Seoul" of our family—
you own the key to our heart.

"Thanks for working so hard"
may have been Mr. Jim's phrase, but your mother and father join him
as we echo this genuine praise.
